Summary of reasons for decision:

The DVD contains an extended version of a film originally examined by the Office of Film and Literature Classification (OFLC No. 1100777.000, registered 15 July 2011). The film was classified "Objectionable except if the availability of the publication is restricted to persons who have attained the age of 16 years", and assigned the descriptive note "Contains offensive language, drug use, and sexual content that may offend".

The "Extended Cut" is approximately ten minutes longer in duration than the original film. The difference in running time is attributed to extended scenes of dialogue which do not alter the overall nature of the original feature. The extra material accompanying the extended version of the feature includes behind the scenes footage, alternate opening sequences and deleted scenes. The additional material contained on the disc as a whole does not require that this DVD version be given a different classification or descriptive note to that of the originally classified 35mm film version.
